Town of Hartford, Vermont

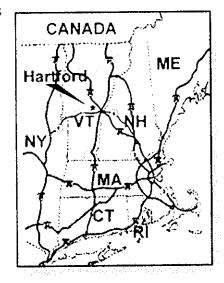

Hartford • Quechee White River Junction West Hartford • Wilder

Welcome to the Town of Hartford And Its Official Web Site

The Town of Hartford is a unique and wonderful place in the great State of Vermont. It is located on the border of Vermont and New Hampshire at the intersection of Interstates 89 and 91 as well as US Route 4 & 5. This is also the site of the confluence of the White and Connecticut Rivers. Hartford is thus a crossroad, the Gateway to Vermont for recreation and commerce alike. With excellent highway, rail, and air services, the Hartford area has long served as a hub for transportation and travel throughout New England, the Northeast, and Canada.

Hartford is in the heart of the beautiful and prosperous "Upper Valley," a region that is home to several renowned educational and medical facilities including the US Veterans Administration Hospital, Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center, Dartmouth College and Medical School, Franklin Pierce College, and the Community College of Vermont.

Perhaps more important is the exceptional quality of life enjoyed by area residents. The Upper Valley is comprised of numerous small towns and villages whose residents hold to community-centered, family values, enjoy freedom from crime and violence, and have ready access to excellent schools. They benefit from living in a clean environment with a multitude of outdoor recreational opportunities including boating, fishing, hunting, hiking, with some of the best skiing in New England only a short drive away.

In keeping with Vermont tradition, Hartford is composed of five distinct, historic villages, with a combined population totaling 10,200. Each village has its own history and unique character. Select from the menu below for brief descriptions of these special places.

ADMINISTRATION

The Town of Hartford is organized and governed under the traditional Town Meeting form of government of many New England communities. This form of government is thought by many to be the purest and most direct form of democracy remaining in the United States today.

Under this form of government, residents gather each year in March to make their opinions heard and cast their votes on matters of public interest such as the Annual Budget, adoption of local ordinances, and other policy-related matters.

A nonpartisan Board of Selectmen, elected for three-year staggered terms, is then charged with managing the affairs of the community. Generally speaking, the Selectmen insure that all of the duties imposed upon the Town and its other officials or staff are performed in a timely and cost-effective manner. More specifically, Selectmen may enact ordinances and rules in areas including, but not limited to, the following:

- traffic regulation
- nuisances
- maintaining public highways
- filling vacancies for local officials
- animal control
- short-term borrowing
- managing solid waste
- issuance of licenses for various activities (liquor sales, restaurants, junkyards, etc.)

- zoning bylaws
- public recreation programs
- warning of the annual Town Meeting
- annual operating budget and supervision of Town expenditures.

Hartford voters have elected to appoint a professional Town Manager to assist the Board of Selectmen with the execution of their duties. Under this form of government, many of the day-to-day responsibilities traditionally charged to the Selectmen are transferred to the person holding this position. The Town Manager is responsible for managing the day-to-day affairs of the Town, administration of the annual budget, supervision of employees, hiring and firing of staff, setting salaries, and enforcing personnel policies. The Town Manager also functions as the Delinquent Tax Collector and as the Director of Personnel and Purchasing. At all times and in all matters, the Manager is subordinate to and takes direction from the Board of Selectmen.

The Board meets every other Tuesday night to take action on a wide variety of public business. These meetings are held in the Town Offices and begin at 6:30 pm. Persons wishing to have specific items considered by the Board must submit these materials in writing no later than 12:00 noon on the Wednesday preceding the Selectmen's scheduled meeting. The public is welcome to attend.

Other matters of interest or concern may be forwarded directly to the Town Manager's Office for immediate attention. Please see the Town Directory for office hours and telephone numbers.
